NEW ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

This class will be going over the book “Every Believer Confident: Apologetics for the Ordinary Christian” by Mark Farnham. This book does an excellent job teaching apologetics in an easy-to-understand way and how to use those apologetics tools in evangelism. The class is co-taught by Steave Harmon and Jacob Kitchens in the sanctuary at 9:55 AM. Books are available for families to take.

prayer & praise

Join with us this week as we pray for the following needs and praises:

Missionary to pray for: Amy Ahrens. To send an e-mail: amy.ahrens@cru.org

BIRTHDAYS THIS WEEK: Laura Fitzke, Aleah Springer, Luke Williams, Matt Dorn, Sharon Luben, and Bekah Marshall. ANNIVERSARY: Paul & Laura Peters. Pray they will grow in love for Jesus.

Please be praying for Nancy Kloke, who is recovering from a broken hip.

SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. As you read the familiar resurrection story in Luke 24:1-12, what is it that sticks out to you the most?
2. The disciples were clearly not expecting the tomb to be empty on Sunday morning. Why is that detail important and how does it impact the way we think about the credibility of the resurrection story?
3. As you think about the resurrection of Jesus Christ, what evidence would you point to as proof that Jesus actually rose from the dead?
4. Why is it important to note that Jesus had predicted his death and resurrection (cf. v. 7)?
5. Are there any promises of God that you have a hard time believing? How does v. 7 give you confidence that you can believe those promises?
6. How does the resurrection of Jesus change the way we think about the trials and difficulties and troubles of this world?
7. What is one practical step you would like to take this week to live differently in light of what you read here in Luke 24?

Next Week's Passage: Luke 24:13-35
